Down The Drain

*Far up north and way down south
Impossible to shut my mouth
Impossible, you speak the word
That is not what I have heard
" No brain, no pain
Two of us in the rain
One of us in the drain"*

*Lady and I on the holy night
Ended up in a glorious fight
What is right and what is wrong
You step right up you stay too long
"No brain, no pain
I'll put your head in the main
Swing the cane like Morgan Kane"*

*Well I read the bible the other day
Reminded me of Rita Hay
Worth a while if it makes you smile
I'd walk the aisle, she got style
"No brain, no pain
You will say that I'm insane
Well I'm not in love of gain"*

*Just in case you need a cat
Yeah, I will take off my hat
No instructions or reductions
I'm all yours inside these doors
"No brain, no pain
Let's have some champagne
Oh will you be my Penny Lane?
No brain, no pain,
Always some more to gain
This is my last refrain"*

....no it's not..

*Now it's time to end this tune
I am howling at the moon
I can imagine what you think
That poor guy needs a shrink...well I think I'll rather have another drink...
"No brain, no pain
I'll catch the freight train
Follow me go down the drain"*
