

STEINAR RAKNES

Open Up

*Open your window
To the past, your memories, to your soul
Open up
The backdoor
To your mind, and you'll find the core*

*Open your ears
To the sounds underground
Another world
Under your nose, you can hear it so clear,
So close*

*Open your heart
To the land, the universe
Mother Earth
You and me, the unborn, reborn
The key in the willow tree*
